Hello young Lasallian!

If you're reading this guide today, it's because you've passed the Parcoursup admissions test, congratulations to you! As you've no doubt seen when you're on campus for your interview or for a JPO, life here is... How shall I put it? Intense!

It's true that lectures and tutorials punctuate your day, and will help you to earn your engineering diploma one day.

Certainly, your classes will teach you scientific concepts that you'll be able to apply conscientiously once you've joined the company. But it's all your extracurricular experiences that will teach you our values: mutual aid, commitment and sharing.

Between meetings, exchanges, innovative projects and community involvement, you'll soon realize that there's always something to do in the Beauvais area!

This guide is a gold mine of useful information you'll need, as well as an introduction to the 87 Com's & Asso's that make our campus tick! I'm sure you'll find what you're looking for! So whether you're sporty, creative, artistic or ambitious, don't hesitate to take the Com's & Asso's metro. It'll take you on a journey of enriching experiences and unforgettable adventures! Go for it and become as inspiring as those who inspired you when you first arrived.

You're about to experience the richest five years of your life, and believe me, they're going to fly by. Savor every moment and don't turn down any opportunity that comes your way. They will help you grow and become that value-added engineer destined to move the world.

On behalf of the AGE, I wish you an excellent first year on campus. Don't forget, we're here for you, so don't hesitate to ask!

Domitille GREIVELDINGER,
President of the AGE for the 2023-2024 term.

@com.internationale

Hello to you, dear new international student arriving at UniLaSalle Beauvais' campus!

First, let me introduce myself. My name is Chloé Conty-Flinois and I am the president of the Com'Internationale for the year 2023-2024. Through this small text, I'm pleased to welcome you to our school where, I'm sure, you'll have a great time and an unforgettable journey.

I know you just arrived, so you might be stressed or excited, or even both at the same time! But you should know that we, the Com'Internationale, are here to help you through your time here at UniLaSalle and to make sure you have a great experience. We are a team of 14 french and international students super-motivated to be there for you! We have been working hard to organize incredible events for you: meals, activities, parties, weekends, trips, etc., that you'll discover throughout the year. Moreover, we already assigned to each of you a buddy: a French student that will be your guide and (hopefully) friend here at UniLaSalle.

Anyway, the Com'Internationale team is there for you, don't hesitate if you have any questions. We wish you an amazing stay in France!

Chloé Conty-Flinois,
President of the Com'Internationale for the 2023-2024 mandate

What is the AGE?

More commonly known as the AGE, it's a board made up of around thirty students from all years and specialities, elected each year to represent TE before the school management. To this end, the Petit Bureau sits on the school's Management Committee (CDD). Their presence is important, as it enables them to be at the heart of the school's strategic orientations, as well as feeding back students' ideas and feelings. Don't hesitate to share your feelings with them. The Grand Bureau is divided into several departments. Their mission is to animate campus life, support associative life, and manage the AGE's communications and relations.

As well as working with the School, we also collaborate with campus associations and students to carry out projects to improve student life.

We take care of reserving kitchen equipment and the barbecue area. We have many partnerships to offer you great prices on computers, pizzas and much more! We also aim to energize, coordinate and promote campus community life. To this end, we organize various events throughout the year (Forum des Com's et Asso's, Graduation Ceremony (RDD), UniLaSalle Day...) and work on a daily basis to enrich student community life.

If you'd like to find out more about our Commissions and Associations, or if you have any questions about campus life, please don't hesitate to come and see us at the top left of the Associations building! We'll be delighted to help! You can also visit our website, where you'll find dates of all our events, useful links and much more.

See you soon, and have a great LaSallienne year with us!

LAUNDRY ROOM AND ITS OPERATING

WASTE MANAGEMENT ON CAMPUS

Where do we throw away food waste? :

Several collective composters have been set up on campus. You'll find them near Canada, at the coms and assos kitchens, at La Mie au Roy in La Plaine and at Les Carrières.

Bio-bins have been placed in each tea room, so you can use them to put your organic waste (peelings, eggshells...).

Please note that animal foodstuffs are not compostable!

How do you sort your waste?

The underground columns are located near the Canada residence, next to the rugby field, opposite the Mie au Roy and at the end of the West wing.

opposite La Mie au Roy, and at the end of the West wing. These columns allow waste sorting:

paper/cardboard

hollow bodies (cans, plastic bottles, cans...)

glass

household waste

Under the staircase leading to the bird hall, you'll find another 5 garbage cans in the corner near the red cube. This allows you to sort :

- Cans: managed by Géoraid, cans are then taken to the underground "hollow body" column and recycled. Thank you for remembering!
- Batteries
- Ink cartridges
- Corks (for the benefit of an association that makes the dreams of disabled people come true)
- WEEE (Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment) such as old cell phones, calculators, etc.

Light bulbs are not collected. To do this, go to the sorting corner of the supermarket of your choice. They all have a sorting area with a Recyclum garbage can.

In classrooms and lecture theatres, paper garbage cans are collected every morning by maintenance staff and emptied into the underground "paper/cardboard" column. Be careful not to put any other waste in these garbage cans!

INTENDANCE

Requesting a leave of absence

When ? 48h before an appointment or when you return from your leave

How ? By filling out the form provided for this purpose on paper at the administration office or via your Sharepoint platform

HOUSING SERVICE

The service is open from Monday to Friday from 09:00 to 12:00 and from 13:30 to 17:00

All student are welcome. They will help you with housing, but with many other things:

- Rental of the gymnasium's tea room (200€ deposit)
- Getting the keys under deposit of different tea rooms
- Assistance with the APL file
- Assistance with daily concerns: lost keys, technical problems...
- Relay with providers from cleaning services' and laundry service
- Listening and exchange point with different associations

They guarantee good maintenance and cleanliness of buildings teamed with technical services. In this prospect, they make regular visits at the premises and contact students if necessary. They lead housing policies and projects aiming at the well being of each student.

TECHNICAL PROBLEMS

For all non-urgent problems such as water, electricity, heating... you can make a request for intervention directly at the reception desk (by filling in the intervention request form) or on the website of the housing service (the link is available on AGE website at "useful links") and the problem will be solved within the next few days by our beloved "little blues". If the problem is more serious (collapsed ceiling, big flood, broken bed...), contact the housing service directly at service-logement@unilasalle.fr.

Why should I do this?

To ensure that you live in good conditions on a daily basis

To ensure good management of the premises, because it is everyone's role to prevent a Dysfunction.

This is handled every morning. For big emergencies (important water leak or other etc...) see directly with the reception. Opening hours: 8am-6pm every day of the week.

At the reception you can also renew your city bus pass.

BEAUVAIS AND ITS SURROUNDINGS

HOW TO GET DOWNTOWN (WITHOUT A CAR...)

Wondering how to get to the city, but don't have a car?

The C2 bus line passes right by the campus! For 1€ you get a ticket valid all day on all Beauvais lines! You can also subscribe for 8€ a month!

For bus timetables

You can try walking to school, but it's not recommended for the return trip.

The school provides electric scooters for the more adventurous among us, and you can rent a bike from com'Bike!

The easiest way is to find someone in your class with a car and carpool.

18-8 PLEASURES

Ah, the first few days at UniLaSalle... Barely arrived and already immersed in the integration, the games, the meetings, the hugs... Then the first classes start, no time for nonsense, you've got to get on with it: the lecture halls, the TDs, the fieldwork, then come the first exams and the start of revision. The school fills up, campus life intensifies to the rhythm of the thrilling Thursday evening parties, and the timetable gets heavier like the Friday morning headache. You'll see, classes from 8am to 6pm aren't always easy to digest. But just as sure as after the rain comes the good weather, after classes comes the 18-8!

The 18-8 is not just a time slot outside class, it's the ideal time to pursue your hobbies, get involved in campus community life and meet other students. Put simply, 18-8 is all about making memories of your time at UniLaSalle, with the chouilles of course!

In short, it's all well and good, but it all happens so quickly, and when you're a newcomer to UniLaSalle, it doesn't leave you much time to get your bearings... Fortunately for you, this booklet is here to help you better understand the day-to-day life of students outside the classroom: sports, music, various and varied activities, hobbies for some, revision for others, and above all... THE COM'S AND ASSO'S! These are the groups that bring together students who share the same passions and interests. We invite you to discover them in the next few pages!

INVITING EXTERNAL GUESTS

On-campus invitations are permitted, so it's easy to do:

- Send an e-mail
- Addressed to G-DMVE@unilasalle.fr and G-Sécurité@unilasalle.fr
- 48 hours before the guest's arrival
- Including surname, first name and length of guest's stay
  - If your guest is staying on campus: you must inform karine.brianchon@unilasalle.fr (Accommodation and Guest Services Manager) by e-mail, giving your room number.
  - When guests arrive: they must report to the security guards as soon as they arrive at 9pm, at their desk in the reception area.

Compliance with this rule will prevent any problems or expulsion from the campus.

THE RELAXATION ROOM

Dear LaSallien, as the saying goes, "after effort comes comfort", the relaxation room is one of the ways to unwind after class. In the process of being revitalized, you'll find: sofas, table footballs, a TV, mangas... All this equipment is available to you every day of the week, 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. As an AGE member, all this belongs to you and all the students at the school! We kindly ask you to keep this area tidy. Please don't eat or drink inside (the bar or chill-out area is much more appropriate), and as a place to relax is a place to be quiet, we're counting on you to keep the atmosphere relaxed.

THE FOYER

The foyer is at the heart of Beauvais campus life,
From 1st to 5th year, you'll have an unforgettable time here,
Both on a daily basis and at the parties organized there.

However, to make sure all this goes as smoothly as possible, there are a few rules of good conduct you'll need to follow from the moment you arrive:

When you order at the counter, but also when you are called to order :
you will respect the volunteer team in charge of the Foyer,

Thou shalt respect the cleanliness of the premises and the campus:
thou shalt take care of the cleanliness of the premises and the campus,

Thou shalt return bottles that thou mayest consume to the counter,

The furniture and equipment in the foyer (pétanque, card mats, etc.) that you can borrow are subject to a law that everyone knows, but that some find difficult to integrate:

what you've moved, you put back,

Last but not least, you'll discover that the hostel offers a highly diversified brassicole menu (strong alcohol is forbidden), so there's no need to bring your own booze if you want to have a good time!

We'll also be waiting for you every lunchtime to chat over a cup of coffee or tea,

The Com' Foyer team

THE CHOUILLE

POUR
LES NULS

Take Domitille for example: Domitille is a LaSallian. In class, Domitille is someone who raises her hand, who doesn't always know the right answer, but who learns, and who, in the end, passes her exams like everyone else and manages to validate her modules.

What does Domitille do on Thursday evenings?

Domitille reserves her Thursday evening for the party, so she finds out about the theme of the day's event, then makes her costume! Domitille knows that costumes play an important role in chouille! Domitille is a true LaSallian.

On a more serious note, young student, you're arriving at a school full of traditions, one of which is to come to chouille dressed as you should be, so have fun! We're counting on you, on your dynamism and your open-mindedness, to make this tradition (among many others) flourish, traditions that are dear to us and that you'll have the opportunity to discover throughout your time at UniLaSalle.

Domitille on the 8am - 6pm shift

Domitille during the 18h - 8h shift

COM'S & ASSO'S

WHAT IS IT?

Simply put, Commissions and Associations are student groups that enable us to energize campus life while doing what we love. There's something for everyone and every taste: sports, music, painting, organizing an event, carrying out a humanitarian project, learning about the business world... In short, there's something for everyone. And with over 70 Commissions and Associations on campus, you're spoiled for choice!

Some are relaxing, others give us a sense of responsibility, and if you look hard enough, it's not unusual to come across one or two atypical, original or even strange committees...

The important thing is that everyone finds something to suit them. And if, by some misfortune, you feel that this school is seriously lacking an underwater curling team, don't worry, new committees are created every year!

COM OR ASSO ? THAT'S THE QUESTION ...

It's not always easy to tell the difference between a Commission and an Association, especially when you're new to UniLaSalle. In fact, the two are very similar... Here are a few explanations!

COM	ASSO
Formalities, paperwork, deaf dialogue with the prefecture, risk of embezzlement	✓ Declaration to the prefecture with official documents upon its creation and passings
Official status	✓ Official status
Bank account	✓ Bank account, financial independence
✓ Dependent (financially and administratively) on AGE, BDS, or BDA	✓ Association representatives under legal responsibility

I'VE DECIDED, I WANT IN!

Joining a Com' or an Asso' doesn't just mean enjoying the activities it offers, it also means giving your all to contribute to its smooth running and development.

Being part of a Com' or Asso' means participating, in your own way, in the evolution and enrichment of student life. More simply, being part of an association is about giving yourself and others pleasure. The key is to find the Com' or Asso' that suits YOU and motivates YOU. Often there are several, and you're forced to choose because you can't join them all, at least not in the same year... But how do you find the right Com' or Asso' among them all? How do you get in? In what year? Who to contact? So to find out, book your Thursday, September 28, and join us at the Forum des Com's et Asso's in the Agora! In the meantime, here's a little booklet to tide you over!

Every month, it recounts events, recounts anecdotes, reveals gems, writes interviews, proposes games and, above all, aims to offer readers an entertaining moment. It is the memory of campus life, allowing students to look back over their years thanks to the monthly imprint it freezes under the ink. The discreet Marmite also welcomes outside articles!

Intégration UniLaSalle Beauvais

L'intégration is an association made up of a small board of four members and a large board of 16 members, divided into different divisions. The aim of Integration is to introduce 1st-year bachelors and engineers, as well as 2nd-year PARA students, to the Lasallian spirit. Beforehand, we organize five unforgettable and memorable days for new students. Visits to the campus and Beauvais, games, sports activities and some crazy antics are all on the agenda. It's the first glimpse they get of Unilasalle and the beginning of the strong bonds they'll build throughout their studies. The integration team is well aware that this is a key event for Lasallians, and goes to great lengths to live up to the school's reputation.

Sainte-Barbe is EARTH and BGE's flagship event, honoring Saint Barbara, the patron saint of geologists. It takes place over the first weekend in December. On Friday, the 5A's take the reins for a day of festivities with floats, competitions, masquerade costume and a ceremony with the GEOS department, before ending with a small party in the foyer. On Saturday, Géode takes over for a day where Alumnis share their professional experiences around round tables. This is followed by a colorful cocktail reception and an evening in the foyer. So if you want to enjoy and celebrate the geosciences with your class, alumnis, teachers and all the geols on campus, Saint Barbara's Day is the perfect occasion.

The St-Éloi and Ste-Marthe celebrations are organized to welcome to campus the AGRO and FOOD classes that graduated 5 years ago. In the afternoon, round-table discussions led by alumni are organized for students. The different business sectors (e.g. plant breeding and seeds, agri-food processing...) and cross-cutting themes (e.g. digital, entrepreneurship...) are discussed. This is followed by games and a dinner organized by the 1As. Finally, like all LaSallian events worthy of the name, the evening ends with a chouille.

This event is organized by the AGE and Com' Alumni, with the help of 1A students who are invited to help organize the games, dinner, logistics and decorations. ### RALLYE

@rallyeunilasalle

Every year, around a theme, teams decorate the car, bike, tractor or horse that will take them on this adventure (and why not the motorcycle for this year)! On D-Day, these small groups leave the campus to follow an indicated course full of games, with a break for lunch, while supporters await their return at the finish line. A meal and a party are organized in the evening.

LA REMISE DES DIPLOMES

The RDD is the event everyone looks forward to, but dreads at the same time...

Finishing school, graduating, being able to work and build a life: it's a dream, isn't it? It's the most beautiful of ceremonies, the only occasion on which you'll be honored in front of all the students and your own family, a day and evening rich in emotion and unforgettable! However, it's also the event that will mark the end of your studies in the great LaSallienne family, the end of an infinite number of memories with our friends in chouille, but also in class and with our teachers...

So, to mark this crucial event and say farewell to our many friends, teachers and the younger ones we've just joined, we're organizing a wonderful evening to bring us all together and share these last moments with students and graduates. Places are limited, however, so the hundreds of volunteers who organize this day are rewarded. To take part, all you have to do is RSVP to the AGE, a team of 5 graduates from different specialties, who are in charge of organizing the event.

Promotion office

You arrive at UniLaSalle among more than a hundred students, perhaps you feel lost or impressed by the richness and diversity of the campus! Classes are starting, and you feel the need to have a contact person to follow up and liaise with your teaching team? This mission is certainly for you!

Being a Class/Group Office means building a team of 10 motivated students determined to commit themselves to their class/group! Quite simply, it's about creating a team spirit that reflects the cohesion of the entire class/group.

Joining a Promotion Office or Group Office means committing yourself to the whole promotion/group, representing all the students, listening to them and leading the life of the promotion/group.

It's your job to ensure the well-being of every member of the class/group, and the smooth integration of everyone. It's a daily and regular commitment, throughout your term of office.

Do you still have questions or doubts about this commitment?

You'll find testimonials from former class presidents here!

Nicolas D'HEROUVILLE President of the BGE-029 class in its 1st year

During my first year at UniLasalle, I decided to create my own class office and take on the role of president. I strongly encourage you to make this choice too, as it gives you a very quick insight into the workings of an association. You'll have responsibilities and be able to make decisions. Of course, you'll be supported in this process by the DMVE and by the students in your senior years! Enjoy your journey into the world of LaSallian associations!

Léo AGUITON President of the EARTH 2021 group in its 2nd year

What does it mean to be part of a class office? It's all about promoting community life and cohesion within your class, but it's also about acting as a link between the administration and your class. It requires creativity, seriousness and, above all, motivation. Being president has been a great experience, which has brought me a lot on a personal level and enabled me to get to know the whole class better. I'd recommend it to anyone who wants to get involved with their class!

Mathilde POTTIER President of Class 021 in its 4th year

Joining a promotion office is a great opportunity to get involved in LaSaliennne life, both academically and through associations! As a rather shy and discreet person, I decided to set up an office to support myself, and this has enriched me enormously, professionally speaking!

I've also been able to share some great moments with my graduating class by organizing events such as the graduation weekend! It's an opportunity to get to know the whole class, and to create a real sense of togetherness and cohesion!

For me, it was a wonderful experience, rich in encounters and which enabled me to learn a lot about myself!

So my only piece of advice is: go for it, don't be afraid, and the experience will be nothing short of exceptional!

Clément BUNIAS Life president of class 162

The Class Office is a group of students whose aim is to energize life within a class and make it pleasant, full of common sense, solidarity and cohesion. Class life is punctuated by times of difficulty, but also by great moments, and this is what makes and reinforces a strong class spirit over the years. So it's only natural that each and every one of you can make your own contribution to the company by living a rewarding and enriching experience through your involvement for others. So go ahead, be a driving force and create memories for your class!

COM'SKI

The Com' Ski aims to organize a trip to a ski resort between LaSalliens. The trip brings together all the LaSallian promotions, thus strengthening ties between them.

Alim/Food/Cares/Star : Refers to a category of students composed mainly of women. These women, who often come from an urban environment, can be a disruptive element for the male students. A study has shown that the academic level of young men has dropped considerably since the creation of this stream. This category, as the name suggests, is characteristic of Food and Health students. However, let's make no mistake, what would an Alim be without a beer and a chip in his hand?

L'Atelier: Term designating the place where, during the night, males with a full bladder, or sometimes even certain opportunistic females, meet for a well-deserved pee break. Located between La-Mie-Au-Roy and La-Mie- Au-Roy, the Workshop represents a special moment of exchange and encounter in the life of a LaSallian. Neglected and almost abandoned since the restoration of the bar (we have even heard pledges use the term "has-been" ...) the Atelier is trying to adapt to the changes of this school. Fortunately, we'll always find some nostalgic people from those good old days there to talk about beers, crushes and crunchy stories.

Bicas : [4th year] The period when the LaSallian starts to take himself seriously. He has been walking around the bar for over 3 years and has tasted all the beers 100 times already. He then realised that the world of work was fast approaching. A real reflection is then made: "I'm too old for this crap". Surely invested in the two biggest events of the school: the Ovalies or the Gala, he ends up taking the big head: "No but you can't understand, I'm in the Ovalies, it's a huge job...". Some say he has lost his head, others think he has become "boring". However, the bicas will not lose his sense of fun.

Bizuth: [1st year] Characterizes an innocent, shy being with a good face. In short, the kind of pet that everyone would want to adopt. The newbie is like an ex-fetus that has just been born (see definition of Fetus). Eyes wide open, he discovers the student world, the drinking, the midterms, the campus, ... There are however 2 types of freshmen: the good freshman and the rebellious freshman. The good pledge is the kind who brings you coffee in the morning in your bed, buys you beers at the bar and smiles when you fog him. The rebellious pledge is more of a complainer. Driven by a sense of injustice about his treatment, he will try to spill coffee in your face and will even make fog for some feisty ones. Ah, we miss those sweet days when this kind of energetic person ended up at the bottom of the pond (see definition of pond).

Fog: The act of spitting a mouthful of beer in the face of a LaSallian (or not) in a more or less elegant manner. Long considered an effective deterrent, fogging is becoming a true LaSallian art. Fully integrated into campus nightlife, it is, according to a recent study, the number one cause of wasted drinks at the bar. But make no mistake, it is also the most effective and peaceful way to resolve conflict.

Pebble: Characterises a person who is a mineralogist. The kind of person who brings home more stones than conquests. He is also a bit of a modern day gold digger. He marvels at the smallest brick and spends much of his free time caressing his stones, whispering sweet nothings to them. You'll see him wandering the corridors with his helmet and hammer. It's the geology students, of course.

Canada: Characterises the wooden residences next to the car park with the same name. No, it's not the school's experimental chicken coop, it's where most of the freshmen live. In their 9m2, they try as best they can to keep an acceptable, or rather viable, humidity. Its demolition had been envisaged 2 years ago, but archaeological discoveries on the site have delayed the work by 8 years. We should therefore be able to see the first groundbreaking for the 2024 Olympics.

Square: [2nd year] LaSallian student's state of adolescence. After a year of ignorance and submission, the square finds itself in the midst of internal rebellion and a search for identity. Attempting to assert himself by crushing the pledge, he seeks to prove something. But what? Perhaps just to show that he is no longer the pledge who was once so chastised.<sup>45</sup>

Chouille: A term for the wild parties at the bar of our beloved school. Of course, one term would not be enough to describe such a general and recurrent thing. Indeed, each schmooze is unique and it is sometimes difficult to define the limit between a good schmooze and a bad one, especially when students have a memory as empty as an ecocup after a connemara. There are nice chouille, sentimental chouille, violent chouille, stoned chouille, dating chouille, chouille we regret, chouille we forget, SAM chouille, totem chouille, nostalgic chouille, foggy chouille, Monday chouille, ... And there is only one golden rule: for a chouille to be successful, it has to be with the budiies.

Claroline : So-called "pedagogical" platform where you will find your lessons, or never find them. This depends on your teachers, who will sometimes hide them in a jumble of sub-folders, or not put them there at all. In both cases, Google Drive will save the day.

Connemara: A lively song echoing throughout the bar announcing the end of the battle. It is usually during this time that the floor is cleaned up by the falling of a few banged up animals.

Cube: [3rd year] Special period in the life of a LaSallian. After 2 years of living in residences, doing ventrigrades in the corridors and illegal afters in the rooms, the cube often decides to move to a flat. Previously, the cube had just returned from a 4-month internship in an English-speaking country. Speaking (almost) "current English", he only watched his series in English and was even fluent in Franglais. Now, the cube lives only half of his year on campus. In the first semester, he leaves or will leave for a 'study' trip to the tropics to improve his Spanish. Goude leuk wiz ze TOIEC.

Cul-terreux or Cut': Stereotype of the peasant with a soiled buttock. At UniLaSalle, the "cul-terreux" has his ass cleaned and his boots waxed. You'll also recognise him by his sleeveless down jacket, his Vichy shirt, his lack of tact and his ability to cut sausage.

DMVE: Dix Mois Vers l'Emploi (Ten Months Towards Employment) is a social reintegration platform that enables misunderstood people to regain their self-confidence. To do this, DMVE enables them to express a little authority to young students who are at a loss. This includes training on how to send unwanted emails.

EVb : [Bizuth's Life Party] an initiative launched by Rat'lllye bertin, a convivial afternoon, mostly involving alcohol, a tarp, and buddies, aimed at convincing first years that they have broken their filthy little pledge chains (see Bizuth definition).

Fœtus ou Tus : refers to a person whose presence in the evening is often in inverse proportion to his or her ranking in the class. Antonym of the word chouillard.

Jacqueline: This is a fruity, sweet, white wine-based cocktail for social occasions. A product to be taken with extreme caution as the alcohol scent is inhibited. Be careful, just because you can't smell the alcohol doesn't mean it isn't there! Its low price added to that, it is the kind of drink that is a hit at the aperitif.

Marre: A term from the old LaSallian regime, well before the Rouennaise and Rennaise invasion. According to old writings, this place of worship of LaSallian parties was used to give some rebellious pledges to the God of drink. The ancestral method was for the pledge to be undressed and then thrown nonchalantly into the abyss of the pool. It was soon found to be socially useful in calming the rebellions of young pledges, allowing them to devote themselves entirely to their studies. Unfortunately, in the year 2017, this sacred place was blocked for obvious sanitary reasons. RIP.

Pâle : A feminine term characterising an activity whose name should not be spoken, especially in the evening. It is the moment when one regrets having missed the previous day's fun, or on the contrary having enjoyed it a little too much. Presented most often in the form of short questions, it too can turn out to be an essay, or worse, an MCQ with negative marks.

Penta : [5th year] Pre-retirement period of a LaSallian. Remembering his good years on campus, the penta is a melancholic being, with a sad look in his eyes, powerless in the face of time passing. He is in the midst of a mid- life crisis of sorts. He sometimes acts in an incomprehensible, even violent way. You will often see him misting innocent young pledges for no reason at all (cf penta relou). Finally, the penta is misunderstood by all. Looking for a reason to stay, he will try as best he can to fail the TOEIC to give himself an extra year.

Penta Relou: This is a sub-population of Pentas who are particularly aggressive and vent their hatred on freshmen. Often attacking in packs, the level of rage expressed is proportional to the amount of school time they have left before their term paper.

Little Blue: Characterizes the school staff responsible for cleaning up the aftermath. He often uses his position as a pretext for revenge. Indeed, he sometimes fakes a water leak just for the pleasure of waking us up in the morning.

Rattrapage: Refers to a convivial moment when all the students who did not pass their exams meet to retake certain tests. This sweet mixture of stress, bitterness and photos of your friends already on holiday fills you with a deep sense of regret. "Why the hell didn't I do anything in the first semester? But in the end, denial and resentment will win out over your pain: "At least I got to enjoy my younger years.

SHREUE : Emblematic place of the great Picardy restaurant. Victim of its own success, this starred restaurant has a demand far greater than its capacity. To taste these delicious dishes such as bœuf bourguignon - purée - sausages, or the pan-fried vegetables harvested in the early morning, you will have to survive a long and thick queue (without contradiction of course) and play with your elbows.

TOEIC : Iz it véri importante tou spécifaye ouatte iz ze TOEIC ?

Totem : This is the indisputable proof of a good bar fight. This activity consists of piling up stools in the middle of the dance floor and spinning around them in the manner of the American Indians. There is only one rule: the totem pole can only be played to a specific music, Highlight Tribe, better known as "Totem pole music". After an arson attack a few years ago, it is now forbidden to wrap the totem pole in toilet paper.

Ventriglisse: Activity of any season and any place. Characterises the action of throwing oneself on a slippery floor (often with soap and water but there are no precise rules). The objective is to make the most spectacular slide. A graceful dive is more than recommended. This activity has proven to be a useful way of washing the bar after a spill.

Vigil: Refers to an individual with strong moral values, who is punctual, athletic and does not drink. However, this does not make him a fetus, quite the contrary. The Vigilante does not miss a single moment of fun. Curious by nature, he likes to walk around the residences in the evening around 9.30 pm.

24h: A 24-hour shindig organised for and by the pentas. For them, it's a shindig that mixes joy, nostalgia, sadness and drunkenness. For the others, it will be mostly inebriation. It is considered by many to be THE last drunken moment of a LaSallian's student life. However, this does not prevent some nostalgic people from coming back for a few occasions.
