ARRIVING AT UNILASALLE - PRESENTATION

Location of Beauvais

Beauvais is located in northern France, 50 miles north of Paris.

Presentation of a LaSallian Institution

A Private graduate school

This Private graduate school, called ISAB (Institut Supérieur Agricole de Beauvais), was created in 1854 by the Christian Brothers with a speciality in Agriculture.

In 2006, more than 150 years later, the school merged with the Geological Institute, IGAL, and has been called Institut Polytechnique LaSalle Beauvais until 2016. In 2016, Institut Polytechnique LaSalle Beauvais merged with the school Esitpa Rouen and is now called Institut Polytechnique UniLaSalle. UniLaSalle is a center for higher education in earth, life and environmental sciences that is recognized for its excellence in France and around the world. Under the aegis of Ministry of Agriculture and Ministry of Education, UniLaSalle is a member of Conférence des Grandes Ecoles, FESIC and Institut Catholique de Paris.

Saint Jean-Baptiste de La Salle

The La Salle Association

The La Salle Association has been given the responsibility by the Congregation of Christian Brothers to supervise our institution in terms of curriculum and teaching methods, pastoral activities and links with other schools. It ensures that the commitment to the Lasallian mission is maintained.

Worldwide information, see: www.lasalle.org ; for France, see: www.lasalle-fec.org

Our values

The school wishes to encourage values such as respect, sense of commitment and voluntary work, belief in equality and equal opportunities for the poor and underprivileged. Proof of this commitment can be found in the personal supervision students receive from faculty members, the promotion of extra-curricular activities in the academic programme and the comprehensive education offered by campus life and its vibrant community life.

Indeed campus life offers an exceptional experience of collective living calling upon a sense of responsibility to serve others and resulting in lifelong friendships.

All of the above is the foundation of the school's spirit and strength that is shared by the hundreds of thousands educated every year in LaSallian institutions around the world.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES AND FINAL REGISTRATION

Health insurance and medical coverage in France

(Non-European students)

Health insurance is mandatory and is called Sécurité Sociale.

Although the social security system is officially the responsibility of the Caisse Primaire d'Assurance Maladie (CPAM), the social security system for students is run by two organizations (only one has to be chosen):

> Either LMDE (La Mutuelle des Etudiants) www.lmde.com

> Or SMENO (the Société Mutualiste des Etudiants Nord-Ouest) www.smeno.com

Registration with the student social security system is carried out upon arrival with the academic assistant of your speciality.

Payment at the student charge is required for this registration (cf. 2017-2018 fees: € 217)

Students who must register with the French student social security system

All French students, as well as citizens out of the European Economic Area (Member countries of the European Economic Area: the 27 countries of the European Union as well as Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein), and who are under 28 years old on 1 September of the current academic year and enrolled in an establishment registered to that effect by the Social Security are concerned.

Students exempt from having to register with the French student social security scheme

Students who are citizens of a member state of the European Economic Area

+ Students staying less than 3 months (Short programs)

You must have the European Health Insurance Card issued by the appropriate social welfare department of your home country (which must be requested before your departure).

Students who cannot benefit from the student social security scheme

If you are 28 years old or more, you have to take out private voluntary insurance cover either in France or in your home country. If your financial situation does not allow you to do this, ask the student insurance companies for information about the Couverture Maladie Universelle (CMU – universal sickness cover). The CMU scheme enables anybody who is a legal resident in France and who does not fall into the remit of another social security scheme to benefit from health insurance payments for healthcare-related expenses.

Students from Quebec

You must have form SE401Q102 Bis, or, if you are participating in an inter-university exchange, form SE401Q106. If you have neither of these forms, you must contact the student health insurance companies (mutuelles étudiantes) in France.

The “carte vitale” will always be asked at the doctor’s office and at the pharmacy /

Using this card, you won’t have to send a “feuille de soins” to be reimbursed, it will be done automatically.

Don’t worry, it takes months to receive it.

« numéro d’immatriculation » or « N° sécurité sociale » : always asked on French documents

Complementary health insurance (Non-European Union students)

Your registration with the French social security system reimburses part of the medical expenses, for example, medical consultations, obtaining prescribed medicines, and stays in hospital.

To obtain a higher reimbursement rate, you can take out a supplementary insurance policy with one of the student health insurance companies.

This is not mandatory, but it is strongly recommended as it makes up the difference between the amounts charged by the State for treatment and the amount reimbursed by the Sécurité Sociale.

The reimbursement rate by the Assurance Maladie (state health insurance) of a consultation with your general practitioner is 70% of a set charge of € 23. For this consultation, the Sécurité Sociale will reimburse you the sum of € 15.10. Nevertheless, you will always have to pay € 1 for any medical consultation.

Ask the LMDE or SMENO or any organisation of your choice for information and advice.

Important

Remember to cancel your complementary health insurance contract before leaving France.

Civil Liability

The law of civil responsibility makes it mandatory for you to repair damage that you cause to another person, whether it is by carelessness or breach of the law. Your responsibility can also be implicated in damage caused by people, animals, or objects for whom or for which you are responsible. In order to avoid the direct payment of compensation to the victims yourself, you must have already taken out a civil responsibility insurance policy (“garantie responsabilité civile”) with an insurance company.

Nb: This civil liability is included with the room insurance contracted at UniLaSalle. If you decide to live off-campus, you must get your own accommodation and liability insurance! It is mandatory in France!

Housing

Insurance

UniLaSalle is not responsible in case of theft in bedroom or in classroom.

- Students are required to insure (at their expense) the content of their room directly at UniLaSalle upon arrival. As mentioned above, this fee is for accommodation and liability insurance (2017-2018 fees: € 39). Again, if you do not live on campus, you are required to get your own accommodation and liability insurance and bring a proof of liability insurance to International Department!
- Lost room keys have a € 50 replacement fee.
- There is also a onetime 100 € campus fee due upon arrival.

Financial Support

Except student visa with “dispense de titre de séjour”, the international students are entitled to an accommodation allowance (APL/ALS) from the French government (Caisse d’Allocations Familiales, CAF: www.caf.fr). The amount varies according to the rent paid and the status of the student. The file must be completed online upon arrival. Please print your file and give it to the accommodation office with all the proof of entitlement. The amount will be deducted from the rent directly by the accounting department.

Please note that the confirmation of the allowance can take several months.

STUDENT VISA “LONG SEJOUR”

(Non-European Union students)

Who is concerned?

With one exception, the new VLS-TS visa (VLS-TS = Visa Long Séjour- Titre de Séjour) applies to all international students wishing to enroll in a French institution of higher education. The exception is Algerian nationals, who are subject to other provisions.

In most cases, the extended-stay visa with residency permit (VLS-TS) are valid for 1 year, "except in circumstances calling for the issuance of a visa with a shorter period of validity, as in the case (...) of some students."

More information on:

<http://www.campusfrance.org/fr>

<http://www.diplomatie.gouv.fr/fr>

Medical examination

When the VLS-TS visa is issued, the consulate will give the applicant an official form with instructions (example on page 21) that the applicant must present to the French office of immigration and integration (OFII).

NB: This does not apply to visas specifying "dispense temporaire de carte de séjour".

Holders of the VLS-TS visa no longer have to obtain a residency permit from the prefecture having jurisdiction over their place of residence in France, but they do have to report to the OFII and complete several administrative formalities.

Upon arriving in France, a VLS-TS holder must turn in to the International relations office:

- the official form received from the consulate that issued the visa
- A copy of passport pages showing the visa holders identity and the stamp indicating entry into France (or into the Schengen area).

Upon receipt of these documents, the local office of the OFII will send you to the address you provided a letter acknowledging receipt of the form. A second letter will ask you to have a medical examination if such an examination was not performed in the holder's country of origin or upon entering France.

Office Français de l'Immigration et de l'Intégration

OFII - 275 rue Jules Barni, bât D, 80000 Amiens - tel 03 22 91 28 39

www.ofii.fr

In all cases, a tax of € 60 (2017-2018 fees) must be paid by purchasing a tax stamp marked "OMI" or "ANAEM."

The stamp may be purchased:

- online at www.timbresofii.fr
- in certain shops that sell tobacco products downtown (Tabacs)
- at tax offices.

Algerian students applying for their first 1-year "residency certificate" are also subject to this tax. However, because they do not obtain an extended-stay visa with residency permit, they may not use the virtual stamp purchased online. Instead, they must purchase the paper version.

The health examination consists of:

- > A general clinical examination
- > An X-ray of the lungs
- > A check of your vaccinations record

Documents to be provided

- > A passport
- > 2 identity photos (bareheaded)
- > Proof of accommodation in France
- > Certificate of study/enrolment
- > Written proof of financial resources
- > A € 60 fiscal stamp (OFII)

Where?

The first appointment will be at the medical center in Amiens (the international incoming student coordinator will explain you the trip to get there).

And then, the second appointment will be at the Préfecture de l'Oise in Beauvais in order to get the sticker (see picture above).

Work in France during your studies

NB: please note that students enrolled in a degree have a very busy schedule

General information on <http://travail-emploi.gouv.fr/>

International students have the right to work while studying in France as long as they are enrolled in an institution that participates in the national student health-care plan.

Students who are not nationals of EU member countries must also hold a valid residency permit.

The right to work applies to all students, including those who are in France for the first time, those who are enrolled in the first year of a university program, and those who are enrolled full-time in a language school.

The law allows students to work 964 hours in a given year, which corresponds to 60% of full-time employment for the year. Remember that you can't expect to meet all of your expenses by working part-time, so you must have other means of support.

France has a national minimum hourly wage, known as the SMIC. The SMIC presently stands at € 9.67 gross per hour worked, before mandatory withholding for social benefits. Withholding reduces the worker's net wage by about 20%.

You are no longer required to obtain temporary employment authorization (APT, Autorisation Provisoire de Travail) in order to work part-time while enrolled. Exception: Algerian students are still covered by the Franco-Algerian agreement of December 27, 1968.
